James Crumlin Advises Business Owners at Financial Literacy Symposium

Spencer Fane attorney James Crumlin was one of the featured speakers at the Riverside Nashville Financial Literacy Symposium on January 13.

The half-day event, presented by the Riverside Nashville Seventh Day Adventist Church and Pinnacle Financial Partners, allowed attendees to attend community workshops on topics such as real estate, marketing, credit repair, and entrepreneurship. James presented the session Determining the Best Legal Structure for Your Business.

At Spencer Fane, James helps clients navigate the corporate legal landscape and avoid costly mistakes, so employers can focus on running successful operations. He concentrates his practice in the areas of labor and employment law, business and corporate law, litigation and dispute resolution, and entertainment and media law.

James also serves as Chair of the Spencer Fane DEI Committee. In tandem with other firm leadership, the Committee works to build, maintain, and leverage a diverse and inclusive law firm that strengthens our clients and communities through a variety of initiatives.
