SpencerFane®

James Crumlin Reelected to the American Baptist College Board of Trustees

Spencer Fane attorney James Crumlin was reelected as Vice Chair of the American Baptist College (ABC) Board of Trustees at the organization's last quarterly meeting in Nashville, Tennessee.

ABC is a Historically Black College and University with a liberal arts emphasis that seeks to educate, graduate, and prepare diverse students for Christian leadership, service, and social justice in the world. Notable alumni include civil rights leaders such as congressman John Lewis and minister and author C.T. Vivian. Having served on ABC's board since 2015, James will continue to honor this prestigious legacy by supporting the education and development of the College's students.

At Spencer Fane, James helps clients navigate the corporate legal landscape and avoid costly mistakes, so employers can focus on running successful operations. He concentrates his practice in the areas of labor and employment law, business and corporate law, litigation and dispute resolution, and entertainment and media law. He is routinely featured in various print and media outlets and is frequently called on for speaking engagements and in-house training sessions for clients regarding compliance with the numerous federal and state laws affecting employers. In his role as outside counsel for several small and midsize businesses, he is a longtime trusted advisor for entrepreneurs and startup venture founders in a variety of industries.

Learn more about the ABC here.