Jen Coleman to Speak at Firm-Sponsored California Conference for Women

Spencer Fane is pleased to serve as a Patron Sponsor for the California Conference for Women in San Jose. Attorney Jen Coleman will present at the February 12 event as an Executive Mentor.

Jen's session, That's a Good Question: Navigating New Work Environments, is based on a popular segment of the Women Amplified podcast and will allow the audience to drive the conversation. Jen, her fellow panelists, and moderator Hilda Gutierrez (an Emmy-winning investigative journalist) will provide valuable career advice on topics including salary negotiation; networking; earning a promotion; and navigating new tools, technologies, and opportunities in the evolving workforce.

The California Conference for Women is an annual nonprofit, nonpartisan professional development event that gathers thousands of professionals across all industries, levels, and backgrounds. In addition to Jen's panel, this year's program features renowned and world-class speakers such as Simone Biles, Jane Fonda, and more.

At the firm, Jen is a trial attorney who regularly advises and represents employers of all sizes on a variety of day-to-day legal issues. Within her active labor and employment law practice, she adeptly navigates employment counseling, guidance, and risk assessment throughout the employee life cycle.
