

SpencerFane®

Jim Price Named a Leading Environmental Lawyer by Lawdragon

Spencer Fane attorney Jim Price has once more earned placement on the annual Lawdragon 500 Leading Environmental Lawyers – The Green 500 list.

The Lawdragon editorial team selected 2025 honorees for inclusion based on a rigorous process of journalistic research, nominations, and peer vetting. As a recipient of this honor, Jim is recognized among “the enduring talent working across this critical practice” to create a greener, better world.

At the firm, Jim serves as co-chair of the firm’s Environmental and Energy Practice Group and concentrates on environmental regulation and compliance, environmental litigation, toxic torts, and business transactions involving environmental issues. He has served as lead counsel for many environmental matters, including Superfund proceedings, RCRA corrective action, environmental transactions, and environmental permitting and compliance for solid waste, hazardous waste, water, air, and other matters.

Read the full 2025 Lawdragon Leading Environmental Lawyers guide here.