John Holley Talks Litigation Funding Best Practices at Firm-Sponsored LF Dealmakers Forum

September 17, 2024

Apella Event Space, 450 East 29th Street, New York, NY 10016

Spencer Fane is a silver sponsor for the 7th Annual LF Dealmakers Forum September 17-19 in New York City. Attorney John Holley will speak on the panel Best Practices in Institutionalizing Funding Within the Law Firm.

At this gathering of influential professionals that spotlights the rapidly evolving field of litigation finance, LF Dealmakers aims to facilitate industry growth by engaging thought leaders, disseminating critical information and best practices, and bringing together practitioners, end users, and partners for in-depth discussions, debate, and dealmaking.

John's September 19 litigation funding session will advise on creating buy-in and developing a strong knowledge base within a law firm; outline the options, deal structures, and pitfalls that accompany funding; and discuss process development for presenting funding opportunities.

At Spencer Fane, John focuses on high-stakes patent infringement litigation in the federal district courts and the International Trade Commission.
