

SpencerFane®

Jon Farnsworth Joins NBI Seminar to Advise LLCs on Formation, Contracts, and Technology Issues

Spencer Fane attorney Jon L. Farnsworth will advise businesses on a range of issues regarding limited liability companies (LLCs), including entity selection, LLC formation and structure, essential business contracts, and technology issues at a National Business Institute (NBI) seminar on July 29.

During his part of the presentation, Business Law from Start to Finish, Jon will take a deep dive into the top technology issues that business owners are currently facing; key strategies for approaching business valuations; and best practices for drafting commonly used business contracts.

Jon will be joined by Jay B. Abrams, president of Abrams Valuation Group, Inc.; Michael D. Cross Jr., member of Briskin, Cross & Sanford, LLC; and Katherine L. Taylor, the owner of Taylor Legal.

At Spencer Fane, Jon assists clients with all aspects of business and technology law, from mergers and acquisitions to brand and intellectual property rights protection and digital transformations, including cloud software environments.