SpencerFane®

Jon Farnsworth Presents on LLC Operating Agreements

Spencer Fane attorney Jon Farnsworth shared tips for drafting LLC operating agreements during a Federal Bar Association webinar on June 14.

During his presentation, LLC Operating Agreement Provisions, Jon discussed how to reduce exposure with enhancing operating agreement text and provided best practices for reducing risk when doing daily business. He also presented on legal ethics for business attorneys and shared steps to reduce the appearance of impropriety.

At Spencer Fane, Jon assists clients with all aspects of business and technology law, from mergers and acquisitions to brand and intellectual property rights protection and digital transformations, including cloud software environments.