

SpencerFane®

Kansas City Business Journal Highlights Julia Vander Weele's New Role as Office Managing Partner

Spencer Fane attorney Julia Vander Weele was recently interviewed by the Kansas City Business Journal about her new role as office managing partner for the firm's Kansas City office. In the article, she discusses the priorities for her as the first full-time managing partner for the office and her path to this leadership role.

"I'll be looking at our origins and trying to strengthen and solidify our reputation in Kansas City," Julia said in the article. "I see it as a great opportunity to tell (the Spencer Fane) story, either through recruiting or working with clients in the Kansas City community or serving in philanthropic roles."

To read the full article, please click here. Please note a subscription may be required.