SpencerFane®

Kari Olson Joins Leadership New Mexico Board of Directors

Spencer Fane attorney Kari Olson has been named to the 2025-2026 Board of Directors for Leadership New Mexico.

Leadership New Mexico is a nonprofit organization dedicated to identifying current and emerging leaders throughout New Mexico, enhancing their leadership and solution-development skills, deepening their knowledge of the state's challenges and opportunities, and expanding their community involvement. As a board member, Kari – a 2024 alumna of the organization's Core Program – will advance Leadership New Mexico's mission and broaden its impact.

At Spencer Fane, Kari assists clients with administrative and regulatory matters throughout the state of New Mexico with an active focus on state and federal environmental law, public utility regulation, and western water law. She employs her diverse industry knowledge and acute attention to detail to navigate complex regulatory landscapes across multiple sectors.

Learn more about Leadership New Mexico here.