Kevin Redwine Honored for Leadership in Law

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce attorney R. Kevin Redwine as one of The Journal Record's 2026 Leadership in Law honorees.

This year's 27 awardees represent outstanding legal professionals across the state of Oklahoma who "set the pace" for their profession. Kevin earned this honor through his dedicated client service and leadership, which helped facilitate his firm's formal combination with Spencer Fane earlier this year. He continues to strengthen the firm's bench of talent and strategic direction.

Kevin and his fellow honorees will be formally celebrated at The Journal Record's November 12 event and spotlighted in the publication.

At Spencer Fane, Kevin serves as Office Managing Partner for the firm's Fayetteville, Arkansas, and Tulsa, Oklahoma, offices. In addition to these leadership roles, he maintains an active practice helping businesses navigate mergers and acquisitions, energy transactions, and corporate matters so they can pursue strategic opportunities, manage risk, and achieve their growth objectives.
