SpencerFane®

Kristen O'Neal Highlighted as 2025 MLM Women's Justice Award Honoree

Spencer Fane attorney Kristen O'Neal was recently featured in a special issue of Missouri Lawyers Media (MLM) alongside Beth Siemer for their respective Women's Justice Award (WJA) honors.

Kristen's honoree profile outlines her background and spotlights her as a 2025 Litigation Practitioner Award recipient. In it, she discusses the evolving nature of litigation and what she most enjoys about her practice.

"I like the aspect of litigation that you are playing chess with somebody and thinking strategically about the next steps ahead," she said, also noting she appreciates serving as a resource for her clients.

At the firm, Kristen is a skilled litigator who harnesses over a decade of experience representing entities and individuals, including trucking companies, public schools, and health care providers, in all types of cases from initial claims through jury verdicts. Her extensive preparation positions her clients to more effectively reach advantageous resolution for their matters.

Read the full 2025 MLM WJA issue here and read Kristen's profile here. Please note, a subscription may be required.