

SpencerFane®

Kristen Walker Joins Nashville Bar Foundation Leadership Forum Class

Spencer Fane is thrilled to announce attorney Kristen Walker's selection for the 2025 Nashville Bar Foundation (NBF) Leadership Forum class.

As part of this local leadership program, Kristen and her 24 classmates will participate in nine months of professional development workshops and receive mentorship. The initiative aims to maximize its participants' potential while benefiting the legal profession and the Nashville community.

"We are very excited about our 2025 Nashville Bar Foundation Leadership Forum class," said Erin Palmer Polly, NBF president. "This very select and diverse class will have the opportunity to develop exceptional leadership skills and foster strong professional relationships. We look forward to the positive impact that they will have."

At Spencer Fane, Kristen – a former Assistant Attorney General – is a member of the firm's Litigation and Dispute Resolution practice group. She successfully creates and implements litigation strategies across various practice areas to resolve critical litigation matters for her clients. In 2023, Spencer Fane chose Kristen for the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity Pathfinders program.

Read the Nashville Bar Association's full press release here.