Kurt Rozelsky and Linda Knight Present at FDCC 2023 Winter Meeting

Spencer Fane attorneys Kurt Rozelsky and Linda Knight were panelists at the Federation of Defense & Corporate Counsel's (FDCC) 2023 Winter Meeting on February 21 in Nashville.

This event brought attendees to the Omni Nashville Hotel for a week of enlightening corporate counsel presentations, fun activities, and networking centered on the program theme, Our Heroes Have Always Been Lawyers.

Kurt participated in the panel, Alternative Dispute Resolution, Aviation, Energy Utilities, Commercial Litigation, Intellectual Property. The session advised attendees on how to prepare their clients for future litigation in the face of spiking inflation, inevitable recession, supply chain shortages, warfare, and other geopolitical uncertainties.

Linda's panel – Insurance Coverage, Professional Liability, Civil Rights – explored how defense attorneys can ethically protect their clients, avoid conflicts, and effectively defend or resolve lawsuits regarding civil rights claims.

At Spencer Fane, Kurt provides pragmatic and effective litigation solutions for clients nationwide, helping them navigate difficult circumstances involving potential financial and legal liability. He has assisted clients in a variety of industries, including manufacturing, transportation and logistics, and insurance. Kurt prides himself on building strong client relationships and long-term engagements.

Linda helps insurers and their insureds successfully resolve complicated first- and third-party litigation to minimize potential exposure when stakes are high. She has particular experience defending insureds in catastrophic loss cases and insurers in coverage and bad faith litigation. This has allowed her to build a national practice and serve clients as trial counsel in federal and state courts throughout the country, with an exemplary record of strong results for her clients in highly contentious matters.
