

Linda Knight Selected as Fellow for the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity

Spencer Fane attorney Linda Knight was chosen to join the 2021 Fellow Program for the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD), which “is designed for diverse, high-potential, mid-career attorneys at LCLD Member organizations.”

Linda was nominated for her leadership skills, community involvement, and dedication to diversity and inclusion. As part of the program, she will attend class meetings, professional development sessions, and leadership lunch events, as well as join the LCLD Alumni Program.

“The LCLD Fellows Program has grown to include more than 2,000 top diverse, mid-career legal talent...[a platform] to form new relationships, take advantage of personal and professional development, and interact with some of the United States’ top corporate General Counsel and law firm Managing Partners,” the LCLD explained.

To learn more about this program, please click here.