Lisa Tracy Named to 2025 LABJ Leaders of Influence List

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce attorney Lisa Tracy has been named to the 2025 Leaders of Influence: Litigators & Trial Attorneys list by the Los Angeles Business Journal (LABJ).

Following a nomination and editorial review process, the LABJ selects its annual Leaders of Influence class from among the region's top, dedicated litigation specialists. Each honoree was featured in a special supplement highlighting their careers, practice. and relevant recent successes.

"With nearly three decades of experience in civil litigation, Lisa Tracy has contributed to the legal field since women attorneys comprised a much smaller fraction of current demographics," Lisa's profile reads. "Today, she continues to enhance her position as a distinguished leader within the Spencer Fane Litigation and Dispute Resolution practice group, boasting a lengthy track record of successful outcomes both in and out of the courtroom."

At Spencer Fane, Lisa harnesses extensive experience in civil litigation, primarily focusing on real estate, housing, construction, and products liability. With knowledge in areas such as bad faith litigation and insurance coverage matters, she has represented foreign and domestic excess and surplus line insurers and reinsurers in a wide variety of complex third-party and first-party coverage disputes. She also defends habitability cases and employment practices cases, including claims for wrongful termination, discrimination, sexual harassment, and retaliation.
