

Los Angeles Business Journal Names Hannah Lee to Thriving in Their 40s List

Spencer Fane attorney Hannah Lee was selected to the Los Angeles Business Journal's 2024 Leaders of Influence: Thriving in their 40s list. The list recognizes Los Angeles business professionals in their 40s across a variety of industries for their leadership and achievements.

In her LABJ profile, Hannah and her work is described as “As a partner in a typically male-dominated practice area, Hannah Lee’s proven track record in defending clients on product liability, warranty, premises liability, toxic tort, and construction defect matters has helped her build a reputation as a leader both inside and outside of her current firm.”

At Spencer Fane, Hannah defends clients on product liability, warranty, premises liability, toxic tort, and construction defect matters. From high-profile catastrophic injury cases to large-scale warranty matters, she brings focused experience within the automotive, consumer, and chemical product industries to achieve favorable outcomes for her clients.

View the full Thriving in Their 40s list.