

SpencerFane®

Megan Early-Soppa Named Among Wonder Women of Greenville

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce attorney Megan Early-Soppa received the 2025 Wonder Women of Greenville award from Greenville Fashion Week. She was formally celebrated alongside her fellow honorees at the organization's August 1 fashion show.

This distinction celebrates female entrepreneurs, leaders, philanthropists, and changemakers who generate a profound and positive impact within the business and community spheres. This year's five honorees continued the Wonder Women tradition of walking the runway to receive their award, with Megan donning a stunning red dress and light-up sneakers.

At Spencer Fane, Megan's blend of litigation acumen, regulatory insight, and strategic risk management makes her a trusted advisor for clients facing the evolving challenges of the transportation, energy, and environmental sectors. She provides crucial counsel and advocacy for clients navigating the complex intersections of transportation, energy, and environmental law. This distinguished law practice, combined with Megan's significant community stewardship endeavors, has earned her five other industry awards this year alone.