Michael Hockley and James Price Honored as Lawdragon Leading Environmental and Energy Lawyers

Spencer Fane attorneys Mike Hockley and Jim Price were recently named to the inaugural edition of The 2021 Lawdragon 500 Leading U.S. Environmental & Energy Lawyers.

Lawdragon has been evaluating leaders in the legal industry since the original publication in 2005 of its Lawdragon 500 Leading Lawyers in America. Since that time, the publication has added industry and practice specific guides to its offering, including this newest edition focused on environmental and energy.

The Lawdragon editorial team selected honorees for inclusion based on a rigorous process of journalistic research and vetting from a board of peers in the legal community. Mike and Jim's honor "features attorneys who specialize in protecting the environment, helping companies enhance sustainable efforts and transform our focus to a greener world."
