Mike Patterson Presents on Public Capital Options

Spencer Fane attorney Mike Patterson discussed raising capital in the public markets at a breakfast learning session on October 5 hosted at the firm's Phoenix office. The event was sponsored by the Arizona Technology Council, a premier trade association for science and technology companies.

During his presentation, Access Public Venture Capital, Mike focused on raising capital in the public markets, including an overview of public venture capital and Regulation A funding. He also presented on public capital options and the key factors in both legal and auditing to prepare for a going-public event.

At Spencer Fane, Mike helps businesses navigate corporate, compliance, and securities matters. He has extensive experience in domestic and international mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, strategic alliances, equity and debt offerings, foreign direct investment, distribution, agency and licensing matters, and market entry strategies.
