Mike Patterson Talks Supply Chain Considerations for Global Chamber

Spencer Fane attorney Mike Patterson joined a panel of supply chain thought leaders for a Global Chamber virtual 'globinar' on May 2.

During the presentation, Supply Chain Global Cash Optimization, Mike discussed important considerations for establishing an entity such as transfer pricing and international structuring. Providing a legal perspective, he noted key factors in entity creation such as taxation and necessary legal documents.

Mike was joined in the discussion by Dale A. Walters, Director of Canada-U.S. Tax Services; Alex Martin, Transfer Pricing Principal of KBKG; Vince Thelander, Business Banking Market Executive of Bank of America; and Karen Bottesch, Commercial Banker and Senior Vice President of Bank of America. Doug Bruhnke, Founder of Global Chamber, served as host.

At Spencer Fane, Mike helps businesses navigate corporate, compliance and securities matters. He has extensive experience in domestic and international mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, strategic alliances, equity and debt offerings, foreign direct investment, distribution, agency and licensing matters and market entry strategies.
