

SpencerFane®

Minnesota Lawyer Spotlights Ariel Lierz as an Up & Coming Attorney

Spencer Fane attorney Ariel Lierz earned recognition as a 2024 Up & Coming Attorney by Minnesota Lawyer.

This honor commends Minnesota attorneys within their first decade of practice who have fostered profound impact through their legal practice. In addition to hosting an award ceremony to formally recognize honorees, the publication also released a special feature highlighting each Up & Coming attorney.

In her profile, Ariel discussed receiving inspiration from her father – a former judge – to pursue a law career, uplifting her Jewish community at Spencer Fane and beyond, mentoring other women attorneys, and her intentional focus on litigation.

“Litigation is one of those things where you can be a chameleon of sorts,” she shared. “Every new case that comes your way, you get to learn that area of law and apply your skills as a litigator to what you’ve now learned.”

At Spencer Fane, Ariel serves clients across a broad spectrum of industries, centering her national practice on high-stakes business and employment-related litigation. In addition to a background in Federal Indian Law, she has extensive experience in complex multiparty, multiclaim disputes in the areas of antifraud, antitrust, breach of contract, indemnification, insurance coverage, insurance defense, and commercial disputes.

Read Ariel's full Minnesota Lawyer profile here and read the full list of honorees here. Please note, a subscription may be required.