Nashville Office Receives NBA Diversity Award

Spencer Fane Bone McAllester was recently awarded by the Nashville Bar Association (NBA) with a Diversity award during the 2021 Law Day Lunch event. This honor recognizes firms that are committed to improving diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) within the community and legal industry.

In line with the firm's overall values, the Nashville office is deeply involved in local community initiatives, including volunteering annually at the Habitat of Humanity of Greater Nashville's Build Day and through membership to numerous professional, DEI-focused, and nonprofit organizations.

At Spencer Fane, the firm focuses on building, maintaining, and leveraging a diverse and inclusive law firm that strengthens our clients and communities. The firm has several DEI initiatives, including recruiting a diverse applicant pool, educating our firm members on DEI issues, training all attorneys towards their goals of becoming more effective service providers to our clients, and supporting diversity-focused networks, among others.
