Norma Izzo Outlines Benefits of Specialization for State Bar of Arizona Family Law Newsletter

Spencer Fane attorney Norma Izzo recently authored an article for the Winter 2025 edition of the State Bar of Arizona Family Law Newsletter.

In the piece, Why Family Law Practitioners Should Seek Specialization Through the Bar, Norma – a Board-Certified Specialist in Family Law – discusses the career benefits legal professionals can unlock through earning a specialization. She also outlines the process for applying for and achieving this credential.

"The process of attaining specialization itself was transformative for me, and the process itself advanced my skills as a practitioner," Norma says. "…I left the specialization process with a much more nuanced and holistic view of the practice of family law, and a greater level of confidence as a result."

At the firm, Norma serves as chair of the firm's family law practice and helps clients assess complex family law and domestic relations matters. She develops successful legal strategies and uses her mediation training and experience to seek beneficial resolutions while also leveraging her significant courtroom experience to advocate for her clients in trial. An industry-renowned attorney, Norma has most recently earned distinctions from AZ Big Media and Best Lawyers in America.
