Oklahoma Aggregates Association Annual Meeting

Spencer Fane attorney Courtney Powell will present at the Oklahoma Aggregates Association's (OKAA)'s Annual Meeting discussing how the COVID-19 vaccine may affect the manufacturing industry. As a part of the 'Education Breakout Session,' Courtney will provide timely information related to the pandemic.

The OKAA operates as the primary voice for the aggregates field and hosts this event every year. It is a statewide meeting for top manufacturers, suppliers, and other national/state professionals to express ideas and make policy recommendations with the goal of progressing the aggregates industry as a whole.
