Pat Whalen Discusses Resiliency During Pandemic

Spencer Fane Chair Pat Whalen was recently featured in a Westlaw Today article discussing the pandemic's impact on the legal industry.

The article highlights that the growth at Spencer Fane in 2020 "exceeds projections for even the top 50 highest-grossing firms." Pat attributed the continued success to the firm's focus on client service and collaboration.

"How did Spencer Fane beat the revenue odds? Managing partner Pat Whalen credited the firm's lawyers and client demand that persisted through the pandemic last year, especially for bankruptcy and restructuring services, labor & employment, and healthcare," Westlaw Today noted.

"We've been highly resilient," Pat explained in the article. "We did not want to slam on the brakes for other strategic objectives."
