Patrick McAndrews Explains the Spencer Fane Startup Lab to Startland News

Spencer Fane attorney Patrick McAndrews was recently featured in a Startland News article about the recent participant in the firm's Startup Lab, Pulmonaer Analytics.

Titled, "Pulmonaer Analytics joins Spencer Fane Startup Lab to advance digital asthma solution," Patrick highlighted the new addition to the program and how this investment will positively impact the future.

"Kansas City continues to be a leader in developing successful products and ideas from local entrepreneurs and innovators," Patrick noted. "What a wonderful opportunity to work with Sunti and his team on Asthma Insight, which will undoubtedly help change and shape the future for those suffering with asthma."
