Paul Satterwhite Named Among 2023 Men of the Year by Springfield Business Journal

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce attorney Paul Satterwhite has been named among Springfield Business Journal's 13th annual class of Men of the Year.

Paul and his 19 fellow honorees were selected by an independent panel of judges in recognition of their professional, philanthropic, and civic contributions across the Springfield area. They will be formally honored on August 24 during the Men of the Year event at White River Conference Center.

At Spencer Fane, Paul helps employers interpret and understand the constantly changing landscape of employment laws to help the employers he works with manage their employment law risks. He co-chairs the firm's Labor and Employment practice group and focuses his practice on risk management so the employers he works with can focus their efforts more on the operation of their businesses and less on the management of employment disputes and legal claims.
