

SpencerFane®

Paula George Earns Wichita Business Journal Unsung Hero Recognition

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce Paula George, one of the firm's esteemed legal administrative assistants, as a 2026 Wichita Business Journal Unsung Hero.

The Unsung Heroes program celebrates exceptional staff members at leading Wichita-area organizations for their essential operational support. Paula and her 33 fellow honorees were spotlighted in the publication for their professional contributions and career philosophies. In her profile, Paula illustrated the collaborative, positivity-focused mindset that continues to earn Spencer Fane professionals industrywide recognition.

"I strive to help the 'visible' representatives – my attorneys – to succeed and shine. If they succeed, I succeed, even though my presence is behind the scenes. It's like being an air traffic controller, assuring smooth takeoffs and safe landings," she shared.

At the firm, Paula serves as a trusted resource for attorneys, clients, and colleagues, helping manage the many administrative details that support successful legal representation. Her professionalism, reliability, and dedication make her an invaluable member of the Spencer Fane team.

Read Paula's full Unsung Hero profile here and view her honoree video here. Please note, a subscription may be required for the former.