Paz Haynes Speaks At Memorial Unveiling at Fisk University

Spencer Fane Bone McAllester attorney Paz Haynes recently attended a ceremony event at Fisk University, dedicating pieces of a civil rights plaque from Downtown Nashville to Fisk's John Hope and Aurelia Elizabeth E. Franklin Library.

As a member of the Nashville Bar Association Board of Directors and Special Committee on Race and Equity, Paz spoke about civil justice and the historical meaning of the plaque.

At Spencer Fane, Paz represents physicians and other health care providers in negotiating a variety of contracts and business arrangements, providing responsive day-to-day legal advice on all aspects of operation critical to success. He has experience in the areas of labor and employment law, administrative law, health care law, and commercial and civil litigation.
