Peter Goplerud Publishes Sports Law Casebook

Spencer Fane attorney Peter Goplerud co-authored the recently released textbook Sports Law: Cases and Materials.

Published by Carolina Academic Press, the book features the knowledge of five industry thought leaders. The tenth edition of this popular casebook follows the organization of prior editions: Amateur Sports, Professional Sports, and Issues Common to Both. Comprehensive enough to allow professors to select topics that are of most interest to them and their students, it uses a skills-oriented, problem-based approach to the study of sports law. The text also includes capstone problems and case simulations designed to facilitate both the review of doctrine and the energy of experiential learning.

At Spencer Fane, Peter serves as of counsel in the Higher Education practice. With a focus on higher education and sports law, he is a frequent lecturer and is widely published in the sports law area, including serving as co-author of another leading textbook on the subject, Sports Law for Sport Management. Peter also has extensive accreditation experience, particularly within legal education, having served as chair of numerous ABA Site Evaluation teams.
