SpencerFane®

Rashmin Asher Named a Rising Star by SABA of North America

Spencer Fane is honored to announce attorney Rashmin Asher as a 2026 recipient of the South Asian Bar Association (SABA) of North America Rising Star Award.

This honor recognizes early-career SABA members who have already made profound contributions to the legal profession and their communities. Rashmin – whose leadership roles include SABA of Austin President – was formally recognized for this award at the Annual SABA Conference June 18□21 in San Diego.

At the firm, Rashmin focuses her practice on administrative law in the area of public utility regulation, and she has represented utilities and municipalities in proceedings before governmental and regulatory boards throughout Texas. She harnesses past experience as a managing attorney and staff attorney for the Public Utility Commission of Texas, where she represented the Commission in numerous electric and water administrative and contested case proceedings. Her knowledge includes base rate, change of control, sale/transfer/merger, transmission line, and cost recovery factor proceedings; certificate of convenience and necessity amendments for generation; and more.