Recent Firm Addition Kevin Powers Talks Appeal of Spencer Fane Structure in Law360

In a recent Law360 feature, attorney Kevin Powers discussed his recent move to Spencer Fane with reporter Lynn LaRowe.

In the piece, Spencer Fane Adds Litigator From Houston Boutique, Kevin discussed how his client-centered approach and leadership experience allowed him to build a successful law practice. He also explained why he gravitated toward the resources and unique law firm structure at Spencer Fane as a means of continuing his successful strategy.

"[I have] the ability to collaborate with a strong and diverse cross-office litigation team as I deepen my current client relationships and expand my practice," he said. "Importantly, [this firm] also allows me to maintain a sense of autonomy with a firm structure that has traded a more traditional, top-down approach for one that reinforces attorneys' unique talents and aptitudes for leadership as we curate our own desired paths."

At the firm, Kevin represents individuals and businesses across construction, real estate, oil and gas, financial services, manufacturing, and other diverse industries in complex commercial litigation, working quickly and efficiently to attain beneficial outcomes using the full range of dispute resolution methods. With more than two decades of experience as a trial attorney, he takes a comprehensive approach to litigation, vigorously advocating for clients' key business interests and objectives while maintaining a big-picture perspective.
