Richard Blau Co-Presents CLE on Cannabis Law

Spencer Fane attorney Richard Blau was a panelist for the May 20 Rossdale CLE, Mastering Cannabis, CBD, Marijuana and Hemp Law. Richard is the chair of the Spencer Fane Nationwide Alcohol Beverage and Food Law practice which encompasses cannabis compliance guidance.

The 90-minute seminar and complimentary podcast features the insights of several industry thought leaders such as Richard regarding the rapidly expanding cannabis industry. Their program outlines the latest legal developments and future regulations for legal marijuana, medically prescribed cannabis, and related service providers. They also provide practical solutions for navigating the complexities of federal and state law, litigation, intellectual property considerations, and more.

At Spencer Fane, Richard – a recent firm addition – represents supplier, wholesaler, and retailer licensees across the U.S. in heavily regulated industries, including alcohol beverages, food, and cannabis. His experience encompasses federal and state trade law compliance; responsible vendor and employee training; trade regulation; administrative proceedings; and litigation and dispute resolution.
