

SpencerFane®

Rick Vazquez Named First Utah Fellow of American College of Coverage Counsel

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce attorney Richard Vazquez has been elected a Fellow of the prestigious American College of Coverage Counsel (ACCC). He is the first-ever Fellow to be inducted in the state of Utah.

The ACCC is an invitation-only organization that represents the interests of insurers and policyholders with fellows chosen through a rigorous vetting process. Rick joins Terence Ridley, Evan Stephenson, and David Timmins as Spencer Fane ACCC members.

At the firm, Rick represents clients in matters related to insurance and employment law with an emphasis on representing insurance carriers in coverage, subrogation, recovery, and bad faith litigation. He frequently advises insurers in the areas of written opinions on coverage, analysis of liability claims, and pre-and post-suit counsel on claims handling and litigation tactics in nearly all lines of insurance and also represents carriers' interests in coverage disputes / reservations of rights in liability litigation.

Learn more about the ACCC here.