

Sarahann Shapiro Talks Risk Management at BOMA Lunch & Learn

Spencer Fane attorney Sarahann Shapiro was a panelist for a Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA) Silicon Valley Lunch & Learn on February 20 in San Jose, California.

The session – Navigating Risk, Insurance, and Claims in CRE – explored the entire life cycle of risk management in commercial real estate, from asset acquisition to navigating insurance claims. The panel covered the critical aspects of risk and insurance for property managers. Sarahann and her fellow presenters also provided practical advice and strategies for minimizing risk, maximizing coverage, and ensuring seamless recovery after an incident.

At the firm, Sarahann – who also serves as Immediate Past President of BOMA California – maintains a robust practice focused on all aspects of commercial real estate, including both the transactional and litigation sides. She frequently assists clients in buying, selling, leasing, financing, and developing properties, as well as helping clients with litigation related to commercial real estate, including commercial evictions, breach of lease, construction issues, title issues, and tax appeals.
