

Schuler Joins Litigation Practice Group at Spencer Fane

Spencer Fane LLP is pleased to announce Anna Schuler has joined the Litigation group as an associate attorney in the firm's Kansas City office.

Schuler focuses her practice on general litigation, regularly helping clients navigate a wide array of disputes. She fiercely defends her clients in general business matters, as well as in securities litigation.

"As we continue to grow to meet our clients' needs, we are thrilled to welcome someone with Anna's breadth of experience," said Julia Vander Weele, Office Managing Partner for Spencer Fane in Kansas City. "Anna will serve as an invaluable resource to our clients as they approach difficult litigation matters that need to be handled swiftly and effectively. Our clients can benefit from her knowledge and experience in multiple facets of litigation."

Schuler previously served as clerk for the Hon. Sarah L. Cave, Federal Magistrate Judge in Federal District Court, Southern District of New York. She managed every aspect of civil cases from initial conferences through dispositive motions and trials. She also researched and drafted Report & Recommendations and Opinions on all types of dispositive motions, and drafted discovery opinions and case management orders.

Schuler completed her undergraduate studies at Barnard College and earned her Juris Doctor from the Fordham University School of Law.
