

SpencerFane®

Scott Blakesley Inducted to the Estate Planning Society of Kansas City Hall of Fame

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce attorney Scott Blakesley as a 2025 Inductee into the Estate Planning Society of Kansas City Hall of Fame.

Scott's fellow Society members nominated and voted for him to receive this honor, which acknowledges his 30-plus years of experience in and significant contributions to the local estate planning community. He and his fellow inductees were formally celebrated at the organization's Hall of Fame celebration on May 1 at the Verdigris at Park Place in Leawood, Kansas.

At Spencer Fane, Scott leads the firm's Kansas City estate planning team while maintaining a robust law practice. His work involves all areas of estate planning and trust and estate administration, including family-owned businesses, planning for multiple generations, charitable gift planning, tax-exempt organizations, estate and gift tax planning, and general advice and counseling for family members involved in business and estate planning.