

Segura Joins Bankruptcy Practice Group at Spencer Fane

Spencer Fane LLP is pleased to announce Misty Segura has joined the firm's Houston office as an of counsel in the Bankruptcy, Restructuring, and Creditors' Rights practice group.

Segura works with clients in a wide variety of industries. She brings extensive experience in helping businesses manage the full spectrum of bankruptcy matters and enforcement of creditors' rights issues. Her work in Chapter 11 and Chapter 7 cases focuses on representing secured creditors, trustees, landlords, and others.

In addition, Segura has defended clients against bankruptcy preference and fraudulent transfer claims. Her background in commercial litigation enables her to protect her clients' interests when a consensual resolution to a dispute is not possible.

"Spencer Fane continues to maintain and build on a solid reputation for our work in financial services, bankruptcy and restructuring," said Pat Whalen, firm managing partner for Spencer Fane. "Misty will give us enhanced bankruptcy depth in Houston as we continue to expand our capability to handle our clients' most important matters in the markets where they do business. Spencer Fane understands the challenges businesses are facing, and we are committed to addressing those challenges by providing legal counsel that has the insight to help build a successful path forward."

Segura completed her undergraduate studies at Lamar University and later earned her Juris Doctor from the South Texas College of Law in Houston.
