SpencerFane®

Shannon Wiger Spotlighted for Unsung Legal Heroes Honor

Following her recognition as a 2025 Minnesota Lawyer Unsung Legal Hero, Shannon Wiger was highlighted in a special section of the publication for her role as Office & Client Services Administrator for the firm's St. Cloud office.

Unsung Legal Heroes honors professionals who serve as "the backbone of Minnesota's law firms and legal departments" by completing day-to-day staff work with dedication and immense attention to detail. In her profile, Shannon discussed her current firm role, community work restoring historic buildings St. Cloud and St. Joseph and serving on organization boards, and her team's move to Spencer Fane.

"We joined Spencer Fane because the practices within our team had reached a point where we needed a national footprint with offices across the country – along with greater depth in key practice areas," Sharon said. "It's been a very positive transition for all of us."

At Spencer Fane, Shannon combines business development, client service, and administrative duties to provides essential support to St. Cloud attorneys and staff. Her work builds essential relationships with key clients while helping the team continue its evolution.

Read Shannon's full honoree profile here. Please note, a subscription may be required.