Shawn Tuma and Christine Chasse Analyze AI and Cyber Developments for Texas Bar Journal

Spencer Fane attorneys Shawn Tuma and Christine Chasse recently authored an article for the September 2025 Legislative Update edition of the Texas Bar Journal.

As part of the publication's overview on the Texas legislature's 89th session, Shawn and Christine's piece outlines the state's latest and most impactful changes to technology law. The team discussed the Texas Responsible Artificial Intelligence Governance Act (TRAIGA), the Texas Cybersecurity Program Safe Harbor Law, the newly created state agency known as Texas Cyber Command, and more.

At Spencer Fane, Shawn co-leads the firm's Cyber | Data | Artificial Intelligence | Emerging Technology Practice Group while serving as Office Managing Partner for the firm's Plano location. In addition to these leadership roles, he maintains a robust law practice that helps businesses protect their information and protect themselves from their information. Christine maintains a dual-focused practice at the intersection of cybersecurity and health care, advising clients on emerging legal risks while providing pragmatic, business-forward guidance. She supports a range of clients – from health systems to technology providers – in navigating complex regulatory frameworks, responding to high-stakes incidents, and structuring effective litigation strategies.
