Shelli Clarkston Talks California Consumer Privacy Act in West LegalEdcenter CLE

Spencer Fane attorney Shelli Clarkston recently served as a panelist for West LegalEdcenter's on-demand webinar, Acronym Soup: CCPA 2023 Year in Review.

Shelli joined several other data privacy thought leaders in providing an overview of the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) and the protections it affords consumers under the law. The panel discussed the foundational principles of the CCPA, the crucial rights it grants to Californian residents regarding their personal data, the impact of the California Privacy Rights Act (CPRA) amendment, and other 2023 developments. The seminar also provided valuable insights and expectations for 2024 about regulatory changes and emerging trends as the digital landscape continues to expand.

At Spencer Fane, Shelli provides financial institutions of all sizes with proactive legal counsel on regulatory and compliance matters, allowing them to conduct business and complete transactions with more precision, speed, and cost-efficiency. She collaboratively develops and implements compliance programs, best practices, and policies with a specific focus on enterprise and program risk management.
