Sonja McGill Presents at 2023 ISCPO Conference

Spencer Fane attorney Sonja McGill hosted a session at the 2023 International Supply Chain Protection Organization (ISCPO) Conference on April 12 in Irving, Texas.

Her presentation, Human Resources in a Challenging Labor Market, served as part of the event's two-day programming centered on global supply chain security, e-commerce, industry trends, and investigations. Conference attendees also experienced opportunities to network, earn continuing education credit, and connect with vendors and sponsors.

ISCPO is a nonprofit professional association that connects members from a wide array of sectors. The organization aims to promote, support, educate, and advocate for the advancement of supply chain security and protection through strategic partnerships, international agency engagement, and the building of strong cross-industry networks.

At Spencer Fane, Sonja helps companies throughout the employment cycle: from hiring to firing and everything in between. Sonja is particularly skilled at harnessing her corporate experience to help companies make key staffing and organizational decisions critical to creating a corporate culture that promotes high productivity and morale.
