Spencer Fane Adds Talented Associate with Corporate Transactions Experience in St. Louis

Spencer Fane LLP is pleased to welcome Mary E. Burgoyne to the firm's St. Louis office as an associate in the Corporate and Business Transactions practice group.

Mary advises private equity firms and strategic companies on a wide range of critical transactions, concentrating on mergers and acquisitions and general corporate matters. In her focus areas as well as in day-to-day corporate decision-making, she develops and optimizes short- and long-term strategies for favorable outcomes and improved business operations.

Mary primarily works in the health care, food and beverage, and life sciences industries.

"As our attorneys continue to create agile solutions that incorporate objectives specific to the matter at hand as well as overarching client needs, we welcome fresh, creative legal talents that align with our commitment to exceptional, communicative client service throughout all stages of a transaction," said Amy Mistler, office managing partner for Spencer Fane in St. Louis. "With this in mind, we look forward to Mary joining the team, who brings these attributes and more to her growing practice."

After receiving her bachelor's degree magna cum laude from Georgetown University, Mary earned her Juris Doctor from Boston University School of Law. Prior to moving to St. Louis, she gained experience working at a large international law firm in Philadelphia.
