Spencer Fane Arizona Office Earns Recognition for Family Law Practice and Workplace Culture

Spencer Fane recently made the 2025 "best" lists in both Arizona Foothills Magazine and AZ Business Magazine. The publications respectively named the firm's Arizona office as a Best of Our Valley: Family Law honoree and a top 10 Best Place to Work in Arizona Legal Industry.

This is the firm's second year appearing in the annual Best of Our Valley issue through peer recognition of the exceptional work provided by the Spencer Fane Family Law Team. Led by Norma Izzo – a perennial Best of Our Valley award recipient – the Family Law team provides strong, compassionate, and skilled counsel on complex matters such as business dissolutions, divorce, legal separation, child custody and support, spousal maintenance, asset division, prenuptial and postnuptial agreements, adoption and guardianship, and more.

AZ Business readers likewise celebrated the Spencer Fane commitment to professional excellence and innovation by naming the firm a top place to work, an honor that also highlights legal offices that "prioritize employee well-being, professional growth, and workplace culture, contributing to higher job satisfaction, retention, and productivity." This acknowledgement follows on the heels of Spencer Fane earning nationwide recognition as the only law firm on U.S. News & World Report's 2025 Best Companies to Work For list with a perfect score.
