SpencerFane®

Spencer Fane Bolsters Bankruptcy Team with Tampa Partner

Spencer Fane LLP is pleased to welcome Patrick M. Mosley to the firm's Tampa office as a partner in the Bankruptcy, Restructuring, and Creditors' Rights practice group.

Patrick guides a diverse base of clients through a wide range of matters pertaining to bankruptcy and creditors' rights and corporate reorganizations and restructurings, utilizing a deep understanding of respective industry risks, opportunities, and overall positioning to develop detailed strategies and secure optimal legal outcomes.

Specifically, Patrick represents distressed companies, unsecured creditors' committees, and purchasers of assets in all aspects of complex bankruptcy processes, and secured and unsecured creditors in workouts, non-bankruptcy corporate reorganizations, and acquisitions of troubled businesses. In addition, he provides businesses with general corporate advice for efficient, scalable operations and assists with mergers and acquisitions, institutional lending, real property purchase and sale transactions, and commercial development.

"Patrick's depth of knowledge and comprehensive representation experience will be valuable assets to the firm, especially among the creative and strategic problem-solvers that define our strong, cross-office bankruptcy practice," said Kirby McDonough, Office Managing Partner for Spencer Fane in Tampa. "We always look forward to adding recognized talent in Tampa as the firm expands both geographically and in high-demand industries."

Prior to entering private practice, Patrick gained valuable legal experience in U.S. bankruptcy courts, serving as a law clerk to the Honorable Colleen A. Brown, U.S. Bankruptcy Judge for the District of Vermont, and the Honorable Catherine Peek

McEwen, U.S. Bankruptcy Judge for the Middle District of Florida.

Patrick received his bachelor's degree cum laude from Southern Methodist University before earning his Juris Doctor cum laude from Vermont Law School. Beyond private practice, he is heavily involved in several bar associations, legal societies, and community-based initiatives.