

Spencer Fane Business Transactions Team Welcomes Partner in Plano

Spencer Fane LLP is pleased to announce Tom Cason has joined the firm's Plano, Texas, office as a partner in the Corporate and Business Transactions practice group.

Tom represents clients in mergers and acquisitions and private securities offerings with a focus on the middle market space. In this context, he works to gain insight into the unique characteristics and risks of each client's business to ensure that their needs are addressed and the transaction is advanced in an efficient and cost-effective way.

"Tom takes a highly tailored approach to analyzing transactions in light of the needs and goals of individual clients. He works with clients to develop strategic plans designed to streamline deals without sacrificing results," said Shawn Tuma, Office Managing Partner for Spencer Fane in Plano. "Tom's approach aligns with the deliberate, client-centered work of our broader business transactions team, and we look forward to collaborating with him in our Plano office and nationally."

In addition to these transactionally focused practice areas, Tom also serves as outside general counsel for clients, supporting their day-to-day operational needs both directly, on matters ranging from governance to commercial contracts, and indirectly, by coordinating and supervising the efforts of attorneys in different practice areas.

He received his bachelor's degree summa cum laude in finance from the University of Florida before earning his Juris Doctor with high honors from the University of Texas School of Law where he was Order of the Coif and a member of the Texas Law Review.
