Spencer Fane Celebrates 20 Years of Supporting Building Homes for Heroes at Annual Gala

Spencer Fane is proud to celebrate its New York office's longstanding partnership with Building Homes for Heroes, a nonprofit dedicated to supporting injured veterans, first responders, and their families. The firm recently helped sponsor the organization's 20th Anniversary Gala, held November 9 at the New York Stock Exchange in New York City.

Firm partner Jeff Berger attended the event, which celebrated the organization's continued commitment to improving the lives of those who have served their communities and country. Since helping establish Building Homes for Heroes 20 years ago, Jeff and his colleagues have maintained a strong partnership with the organization through pro bono legal services and charitable contributions.

Over the past two decades, Building Homes for Heroes has donated nearly 500 mortgage-free homes to severely injured veterans and first responders. In 2026 alone, the organization also provided financial, emotional, and vocational support to an additional 5,000 individuals, helping them navigate challenges and build brighter futures.

Spencer Fane remains committed to supporting Building Homes for Heroes and its mission of honoring the sacrifices of veterans and first responders through meaningful, lasting assistance.
