

Spencer Fane Creates 'A Bunch of Hocus Pocus' at Community Trunk or Treat

Spencer Fane was honored to support a Dallas community Trunk or Treat on October 25. Attorneys Kim Kerns, Christine Chasse, and Namrita Notani volunteered the Dallas Asian American Bar Association (DAABA)-sponsored event.

Held at the Mosaic Family Services Shelter, the Trunk or Treat was spearheaded by the DAABA Community Service Committee and offered families a fun and safe trick-or-treating experience. Kim led the Spencer Fane group, which chose the 1993 film "Hocus Pocus" as its trunk and costume theme.

DAABA is a legal organization that supports the professional growth of and provides community for Asian American attorneys, law students, and other legal professionals located in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex through mentoring, scholarship and award, social, networking, and volunteering opportunities. Spencer Fane recently sponsored their 2025 awards celebration as part of an ongoing dedication to connecting with and improving the communities in which the firm is immersed.

Mosaic Family Services provides a safe haven for survivors of human rights abuses, including human trafficking and domestic violence. Through culturally-competent services such as free shelter, legal representation, counseling, and other support offered in more than 30 languages, Mosaic transforms, empowers, and rebuilds their clients lives.

Learn more about community stewardship at Spencer Fane here.