

Spencer Fane Deepens Litigation Bench in Denver, Adds Associate Attorney

Spencer Fane LLP is pleased to announce Andrew Wise has joined the Litigation and Dispute Resolution practice group as an associate in the firm's Denver office.

With a practice set to focus on general complex commercial litigation, Wise most recently clerked for the Hon. Carlos F. Lucero on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit. He also previously clerked for the Hon. Montez Sterling Cobb at the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) and the Maryland Office of the Attorney General in the Department of Housing and Community Development.

"Our office continues to grow in a measured manner that is intentionally aligned with the needs of our clients," said Ron Fano, Office Managing Partner for Spencer Fane in Denver. "Andrew will be a part of a collaborative team that will benefit from his unique experience as they provide efficient, effective, and responsive legal services that address our clients' complex litigation matters."

Wise completed his undergraduate studies in political science and international affairs at the University of Colorado and later earned his Juris Doctor from the George Washington University Law School, where he was an active member of the Student Bar Association. He also served as a research assistant for the George Washington Public Justice Advocacy Clinic.
