Spencer Fane Earns Additional Empowering Women Recognition from The Journal Record

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce the firm has been recognized for the third time with the Empowering Women Award from The Journal Record. This distinction honors Oklahoma organizations that foster workplace cultures that strengthen and support women.

The firm was among the 29 Empowering Women and 12 Beacon Award honorees celebrated at the publication's 2026 Awards event, which highlighted companies nominated by employees, clients, and other supporters for their contributions to Oklahoma's business community and civic life.

"Organizations that intentionally create environments where women can thrive are essential for our state's momentum," said Heather Warlick, editor of The Journal Record. "These Empowering Women honorees show a true commitment to supporting women across all aspects of their careers and communities."

Spencer Fane is honored to earn this reputation through its intentionally inclusive and collaborative culture and congratulates the other organizations receiving recognition for their positive impact across Oklahoma.
